

Completely exhausted, Jacob and Jude wandered out of their local swimming pool and headed back to their beloved holiday. So far their holiday had been filled with so joy and ~~topnes~~ happiness. Little did they know what was about to happen.

Like a trembling earthquake, roaring sounds filled the air getting louder and louder. The boys felt like their ears were splitting in half and clenched their hands over them. Then just as quickly as it started, it stopped. Everything went deadly quiet.

Like an erupting volcano, an immense ~~star~~ sinister object hovered above Jacob and Jude. Diving for cover, ~~few~~ Jude's jaw almost dropped to the floor as he realised this mysterious object was in fact a UFO. It suddenly began to glow red and blue as the boys ~~cautiously~~ cautiously began to approach it.

Without warning a spine-chillingly creepy shadow ~~it~~ strolled out.

Bewildered, scared, terrified the boys ~~awoke~~ 24 hours ~~later~~ later with no clue as to what had happened.

As they glared around, everything was burnt - to - crisp. As Jacob lunged into his pocket he felt something.

Heart - pounding, he anxiously pulled it out. It was a pale chalky colour and was soft like velvet. With a burning sensation bubbling inside him he spontaneously ~~decided~~ to decided to rub it. WHIZZ! A hologram burst from inside it; it was the alien and it had an ~~urg~~ urgent message for Jacob and Jude....
